

New Jersey's DO NOT CALL law has been A Godsend. Its wonderful not to have your day/dinner interrupted by soliciations. The Federal law should follow the NJ law.....once in a while it would be nice if the government did not succumb to big business and protected its citizens.